

CANADIAN BATTLEFIELDS FOUNDATION

FONDATION CANADIENNE DES CHAMPS DE BATAILLE

Now in 21st year, the Canadian Battlefields Foundation Study Tour is intended for Canadian university students who want to learn more about the role Canadians played in Europe during both world wars. This year's tour (8-23 May 2015) will mark the centenary of Canada's first battles in the First World War; as well as the 70th anniversary of the Canadian role in the liberation of Belgium and the Netherlands. The tour will be led by Professor Geoffrey Hayes (University of Waterloo) and Colonel David Patterson, (Canadian Forces). The tour will visit various sites on the Western Front, as well as western Belgium, the Rhineland and the Netherlands.

This is an academic study tour. The Foundation offers a bursary to each successful applicant but requires them to contribute $1000 towards the cost of the tour, which includes air and ground travel from Ottawa, accommodation, meals, and study materials.

Students will be expected to prepare for the trip academically, to lead one on-site discussion, present a short biography of a Canadian soldier buried at one of the sites on the itinerary, and keep a detailed journal and blog describing their experiences.

Outstanding undergraduates, graduate students, and very recent graduates are encouraged to apply.
